

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENKI X 2-Guitar Case to be Introduced at the 2024 NAMM Show

New design is stronger, more durable, and completely streamlined.

BOZEMAN, MT – January 25, 2024 – (GUITARpr) – ENKI USA, the designer and builder of revolutionary, multi-purpose instrument cases has just announced the launch of its newest model, the ENKI X 2-Guitar Case.

In 2018, ENKI revolutionized the music touring industry with its AMG Series cases, and in 2024, they are doing it all over again! The new X Case design is stronger, more durable, and completely streamlined for maximum instrument protection and touring convenience. It also boasts a burley, 2-latch design, providing a tight weather seal and strong failsafe mechanism for instruments during transport.

An upgraded composite core wheel system offers a smoother, more stable ride with a larger case opening for faster guitar changes on stage. This workhorse case is great for musicians who are on the road extensively and can serve as a permanent fixture in any touring set up.

For those who want the very best, The ENKI X Case will take your touring arsenal to a whole new level. New features include:

- Lightweight Roto-molded Polyethylene Shell
- Elegant Streamlined Design
- Modular Soft Case Insert System
- Heavy Duty Removable Lid Hinges
- 2x Zinc Alloy Cam Latches
- Weather Sealed
- Composite Core Wheels
- Pad Lock Plate
- Easily replaceable components
