McSwain Guitars introduces the Red, White & Bullets “Model T” Guitar at Summer NAMM

Limited edition to ship with companion wall mount display

PORTLAND, OR – June 19, 2018 – (GuitarPR) – McSwain Guitars will introduce the Red, White & Bullets “Model T” Guitar and companion wall mount as part of the Boutique Guitar Showcase at the Summer NAMM Show in Nashville, June 28-30 2018.

“Our signature Red, White & Bullets design has been incredibly popular with our customers and we wanted to extend that product line with a new vintage-inspired body and neck profile we call the Model T,” said Stephen McSwain, Founder of McSwain Guitars.

The Red, White & Bullets Model T retains many of the unique features of the original series including handmade white bronze stars, authentic .357 magnum bullet shells along with hand-wound Arcane custom pickups. See full details at:

The initial limited release of the Model T will include a newly-designed Red, White & Bullets wall mount display. The Model T Wall Mount features a distressed steel frame, genuine reclaimed wood and Model T cutout with a matching Red, White & Bullets inlay. “Our wall mount design serves as both the perfect display for the Model T as well as a unique piece of standalone art.” McSwain added.
